Any permit issued by the Cunningham Fire Protection District is conditional upon proper application; submittal and review of additional plans when required; and inspection of the premises. The permit may be revoked for non-compliance with fire prevention regulations. I further understand that this application and any permit issued is not a substitute for any permits or licenses required by law or the regulations of any other authority having jurisdiction. I also understand that any permit issued pursuant to this application shall continue until revoked, or the expiration time as designated at the time of issuance.
